

Career transition

” At pdp, we support companies and organizations in their societal commitments by assisting their employees during professional transitions. We actively contribute to strengthening a responsible employer image.

At pdp, change is seen as an opportunity - a pivotal moment to take a step back and build the next stage with discernment and confidence. In a confidential, caring, and structured environment, our mission is to reveal each candidate's unique potential and help them build a meaningful professional future. ”

The need is at the center of our focus

Our services for companies and organizations:

- Preparing HR managers for collective dismissal phases
- Training managers on their responsibilities during the dismissal process
- Supporting employees who remain

Our services for candidates:

- Individual and/or group support
- Personalized guidance, in person and/or online
- In-depth thematic training with workshops and conferences
- Welcoming spaces in offices located in Geneva, St Sulpice/Lausanne, Neuchâtel, and Bern
- Swiss and international coverage

The benefits of a Career transition guided by pdp

- Choose one or more consultants to work with based on specific topics and/or personal affinities, thanks to an experienced team
- Combine a holistic approach to personal growth with practical job search support
- Leverage a well-established network built over time with Swiss and international companies, headhunters, recruitment agencies and pdp alumni candidates
- Embrace change by integrating key accelerators such as social media and artificial intelligence
- Benefit from the expertise of our consultants, who come from diverse sectors and have held management roles
- Take advantage of pdp's cross-disciplinary synergies in coaching, assessment, and interpersonal dynamics